Jacek Kusmierski

Historic Gardens Specialist at the Museum of King Jan III's Palace at Wilanów (Poland)

Jacek Kusmierski in mobility at Het Loo

« The practical exchange of knowledge and experience was accompanied by a mutual deepening of the history of the two residences and a better understanding of them. We developed a vision for a working meeting on education in historic gardens. [...] Participation in the ARRE Annual Mobility Grant was an excellent opportunity to undertake a study visit to one of the most notable and prestigious royal residence in Europe, but also was a chance to develop many skills that I will use in my daily work. »

Petra Reiner

Head of Corporate Communication and spokesperson at the Palace of Schönbrunn (Austria)

Petra Reiner (right) with Mr. Dorsemagen, in mobility at SPSG

« The participation in the Mobility Grant Program was extremely rich in the exchange of ideas and experiences in Corporate Communications, Stakeholder Management, Corporate and Public Affairs, Strategy & Development, Covid-19 Crisis Communication/Management, Corporate Social Responsibility and Sponsoring. [...] In conclusion, the Mobility Grant Program was very positive and instructive in all areas and at all levels, and was an absolute enrichment for all participants, whether as guest or as hosts. »

Susanne Evers, Curator of Textile and Glass at Stiftung Preussische Schlösser und Gärten Berlin-Brandenburg (Germany)

→ in mobility at Historic Royal Palaces (United Kingdom) – 1st edition

"I benefited a lot from getting to know the way the different colleagues worked. The problems, especially in textile conservation, are similar to ours, but at Hampton Court and Kensington I got to know concepts and working methods that we have not yet applied here."

Ian Tocher, Garden Nursery Manager at Historic Royal Palaces (United Kingdom)

→ in mobility at Het Loo Paleis (Netherlands) – 1st edition

"The visit (at Het Loo Paleis, in the frame of the Mobility Program) was good for strengthening links between the two palace's garden departments. I think there could be the opportunity for further exchanges, as there are so many similarities between these two William and Mary gardens. I also discussed with the garden curator and head of education the exciting possibility of helping to organize a garden-related education workshop at Het Loo in the near future"

Mobility Grants Programme

Support the mobility of professionals

Aiming to develop the exchanges between professionals, the Network of European Royal Residences implemented its own programme of mobility dedicated to its members!

In order to encourage the exchange of good practices, the Network of European Royal Residences provides regularly grants for professionals working in member Royal residences since 2018.

This grant is an aid to mobility, in order to support part of the costs of a "short" mobility (1 week – 10 days) in another member residence.

All trades in the Royal Residences are eligible for these grants: curators, conservators, researchers, restorers, gardeners, educators, fundraising, development, public services and communication department staff, and all other professionals and employees of historic royal residences involved in the implementation of the institution's missions.

By exchanges, presentations, meetings and discussions, each mobility travels benefit to the grantee, the host institution and the sending institution!

Currently the steering committee of the Mobility Grants Programme is composed of:

- Elzbieta Grygiel, Communication Department Manager / Museum of King Jan III's Palace at Wilanów, Poland
- Gabriele Horn, General Direction / Prussian Palaces and Gardens Foundation Berlin-Brandenburg, Germany
- Karina Marotta, Adviser at the presidency cabinet / Patrimonio Nacional, Spain
- Christina Schindler, Marketing -Product Manager / Palace of Schönbrunn, Austria

To note: these grants are reserved to people working in Royal Residences which are member of the Network.
